Radio Fraternity To Meet This Weekend To Discuss Closer Affiliation Wth PSA

Alpha Epsilon Rho, the radio fraternity, is meeting this Sunday to discuss whether or not to become affiliated with the PSA on the same status with the Naranjado and the Pacific Weekly.

All three of these activities have operated for many years as communications instruments for the Pacific Student Association, both on and off campus. In the past, the Pacific Weekly and the Naranjado have been wholly supported by PSA funds, advertising and student sales; the radio department has been supported by advertising, the College and a small allotment from the PSA. Publications have a direct relation to the PSA through their commissioner on the senate, but the radio department has not had this representation.

A question concerning this arrangement was raised when the radio department requested more PSA funds to operate its station. This request for funds was not in keeping with its present relationship to the PSA.

After consideration of the request, the PSA finance committee advised that $100 be taken from the forensic's budget and $50 from the general fund to be added to the radio department budget. The senate approved this suggestion on the condition that Alpha Epsilon Rho vote to be affiliated with the PSA on a par with the other communications projects.

This reallocation of PSA funds was the first step taken toward placing the radio department on a more equal basis with the Pacific Weekly and the Naranjado.

Caroling Plans Set; PSA-CRA Sponsors

Plans are now in progress for the Christmas Caroling Procession and Pageant which will be held Sunday evening, December 13.

An annual Christmas event, this P.S.A.—C.R.A. sponsored activity is campus-wide with living groups, off-campus students, and faculty members participating.

As in past years, the caroling procession, led by the members of the A Cappella Choir, will stop by each living group, sing one carol, and be joined by the residents of that house or hall.

When all student and faculty members have become part of the caroling group, the column will wind over to the Conservatory where each dormitory, fraternity, and sorority will sing a carol which will be represented in tableaux on the stage.

Johnson Chosen As Convocation Speaker

Congressman Leroy Johnson will be the speaker at the President's Convocation Thursday, December eleventh at 11:00 a.m. in the Conservatory. This promises to be one of the most interesting convocations of the year. Plan to attend.

“... While Visions of Chorus Girls Danced In His Head ...”

Women Ruled Ineligible For Overnight Stay In Men's Living Groups

Questions have been raised to the A.W.S. Standards Committee regarding the rules governing girls visiting men's living groups. The following rules are stated in the code covering social functions at College of the Pacific.

“In men's residences, only the first floor at any time is open to women, except at a regularly chaperoned social event (not a weekend social) when women are permitted in the basement “play-rooms.” Visiting hours for women in North Hall and fraternities will be: Friday—from 7:00 to 12:45 p.m. Saturday—from 7:00 to 12:45 p.m., and Sunday —from 2:00 to 10:45 p.m. Exchange dinners between living groups may be held until 8:00 p.m. on Thursday evenings. Both groups must register the dinner at least one week in advance.” This means that the women students may visit the men's residences at the specified hours.

Conservatory Trio To Perform

The Conservatory Trio, Horace Brown, violin, Alex Einert Brown, cello and Edward Shadbolt, piano, will perform Tuesday evening, December 8, at 8:15 in the conservatory auditorium. They will be assisted by Alfred Rageth, clarinetist.

Brown is professor of violin and conductor of the conservatory orchestra at C.O.P. He is also concertmaster of the Stockton Symphony orchestra. Mrs. Brown is assistant professor of cello in the conservatory and a member of the Stockton Symphony. Edward Shadbolt is a professor of piano at the conservatory. Alfred Rageth teaches clarinet at the conservatory and is also first clarinet of the Stockton Symphony. This is Mr. Rageth's second appearance as assisting artist with the conservatory trio.

Campus Blood Drive December 8 Roll Up Your Sleeve! Donate A Pint!

By NADINE REASONER

Here's your chance to save a life! That's right, on Tuesday of next week, December 8th, you can donate a pint of your blood, that might mean life to someone on a hospital bed. The Red Cross Blood Mobile will be at the Pacific gym from one to five o'clock to receive your donations. Those of you who have signed up with your house representative are urged to be at the gym at the time you have specified, however, if this is not possible, any time will be all right.

There are probably questions in the minds of those of you who have made pledges to give your blood.

Are these questions some you are wondering about?

What happens to me when I go to give blood? Will I feel any noticeable effect from giving blood?

A healthy person should feel none whatever. Every precaution is taken to assure that the donor be scarcely aware of giving his blood. A mild skin anaesthetic insures that he doesn't feel the needle. Blood is withdrawn at a steady, uniform rate compatible with the normal rate of flow in the veins. The donor rests both before and after donation.

Should I avoid certain foods before giving blood? Yes. During a four-hour period before his donation, a donor should avoid heavy, fatty foods. Included are: eggs, meat, cream, salad dressings, butter, fried foods and the like.

Should I avoid any foods following donation? No. You are entirely free to return to your normal, healthful diet.

So, you see, all that is required of you to donate blood is a half hour of your time.

What would you do if you saw an old man in a hospital bed desperately in need of a blood transfusion? Would you save him if you could? What would you do if a child were lying in the throes of a disease caused by Rh factor? Would you save him if you could?

I'm sure that each and every one of you would answer yes to these questions without a moment's hesitation. And here is your opportunity to do just this. These are very realistic cases found in hospitals all over the nation, and you can save their lives, by giving a pint of your blood.

ANNUAL PSA WINTER FORMAL SET FOR DEC. 11

For many COP students this year's holiday season will commence with the Winter Formal Friday, December 11th, sponsored by the PSA. This annual formal dance will be held in the Officer's Club with Wayne Morrill and his orchestra providing the music from 9 'til 1:00.

Students are reminded that couples will be admitted gratis to the dance upon presentation of one student body card.

Overall arrangements for the dance are under the direction of general chairman, Jim Cox. The following committees will lend assistance: Decorations — Tau Kappa Kappa with Bev Lloyd serving as chairman; Chaperones—Mu Zeta Rho; Bids—Chris de Sarro; Music—Bob Young; Refreshments—Diane Davinroy.

The Winter Formal is an annual affair which was started in 1949 when COP and Stockton JC were joint colleges. A large turn-out is expected as this will be the only formal dance of the year sponsored by the PSA.

All students are urged to attend and help introduce the first event on the schedule of pre-Christmas festivities at Pacific.

'THE HEIRESS' OPENS TONIGHT AT 8:15 P.M.

“The Heiress,” Ruth and Augustus Goetz hit play, opens tonight at 8:15, as the second production of Pacific Theatre. The play is an adaptation of Henry James novel “Washington Square.” Admission is by PSA cards. Production dates are December 4, 5, 11 and 12. Forum Arts credit will be given.

The show is in three acts, with a single set of a parlor in the 1850's. The story centers around Catherine Sloper, a girl in her late twenties, and her attempts to find love and to feel needed. Her father, Dr. Sloper, resents her, because when she was born it took the life of the wife he idolized. He has never forgiven her for not making up her mother's death to him.

One night during a family meeting, a young man, Morris Townsend, is introduced to Catherine and a few weeks later he asks her to marry him. Dr. Sloper knows that Morris is only after Catherine's money so he forbids the marriage and takes her to Europe for six months.

On their return Morris comes to ask Catherine to elope with him. When he learns that Dr.

Letters To The Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

Since being enrolled at the College of the Pacific, I have been a faithful reader of the Pacific Weekly.

During high school I worked on our newspaper, which won the All-American rating, for three years. I was sports editor, and I can truthfully say, that poor writing and poor layout have combined to make the overall newspaper and more noticeably the sports page uncomparable to "most" high school papers.

This is a criticism but, I feel that the present staff can improve the caliber of the newspaper. But a lot more hard work will be required.

Yours truly,

ON THE AIR

By "LIZ" LASKIN

For the past ten weeks, "On the Air" has been dedicated to telling you about the activities of KCVN and the people involved in these activities. I think you will find that a lot of invaluable experience has been cast our way and there are four people who are indirectly responsible for this. Neither this space nor the writer are capable of describing in full how indebted we are to John Crabbe, Bill Ramsey, Diane Wilkinson and Ken Tatton. Nevertheless, "On the Air" would like to present to you now the first of four profiles.

John Crabbe: John, who has dedicated his intelligence, talent and sincere personality to COP ever since 1939, is the director of Radio Pacific. Such duties as presiding at the general meetings of the staff and radio majors, listening to our productions and criticizing them, teaching, and directing all radio activities—these are the more obvious of John's contributions.

It is the time and thought behind each and every move John takes that is the secret of his tremendous success. The most down-to-earth of all people, he is a great believer of open criticism.

Debate Squad Loses Out In Tourney

The College of the Pacific's Debate Squad participated in the Western Speech Association Tournament at Fresno on November 23rd, 24th, and the 25th. The tournament was comprised of 48 schools from as far east as Colorado.

Sheldon Nicolaysen placed third in the Extempory on the subject of taxation. He also placed fifth in the Discussion on the topic of congressional investigations.

Eunuel Berbano placed third in the Oratory and Jack Mansfield was a finalist in Oral Interpretation.

The senior team of Bud Sullivan and Nicolaysen survived the preliminaries but lost out in the finals. The freshmen team of Helen Cohn and Susan van de Laan also survived the preliminaries but were defeated in the finals. The team of Berbano and Ed Gray did not survive the preliminaries.

ASILOMAR CONFERENCE

Here's Asilomar 1953!

The sound and smell of the ocean at night as you walk along the beach after an evening of stomping feet to the calls of Bob Osgood, nationally-known recreation leader.

Sitting around a big fireplace singing and getting dry after rain has broken up a beach party.

Being stimulated to evaluate yourself in terms of growth toward maturity or seeing the implications of human relatedness in one world.

Meeting and getting to know students from almost every college in California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii.

Seeing the new year in after the annual new year's eve party, and staying up all night talking and sharing with your friends.

All these things and more will make up Asilomar 1953. Last year fifteen College of the Pacific students were among the more than 300 delegates to this conference which is sponsored each year by the Student YMCA and YWCA in the Pacific Southwest, and held at Asilomar conference grounds at Pacific Grove. This year the conference is from December 27 to January 2.

More Heiress

Sloper will disinherit her, he leaves on the pretext of returning to take her away with him but he never comes back; later he leaves for California.

On his return after several years, Morris hears that Catherine is now quite rich since her father died and left her his fortune. He comes to see Catherine and tries to take up where he left off. She leads him on and he believes that Catherine will run away and marry him. When she hears his returning carriage she bolts the door, and as Morris calls to her she goes slowly up the stairs, alone.

The show is under the direction of DeMarcus Brown. The cast is: Catherine, Dorothy Blais; Dr. Sloper, Ted Smalley; Morris Townsend, George Felker; Lavinia Penniman, Hudine Farqueson; Mrs. Almond, Virginia Hurd; Marian, Pasty Boyer; Arthur Townsend, Fred Olson; Maria, Rusty Straub; Mrs. Montgomery, Nance O'Neil.

The crew is production manager, Kevin McCray; stage manager, Doyme Maraz; lighting, Art Dull; sound, Fred Olson; properties, Afton Chung, Terry Probert, Joan Griffin; costumes, Marla Ann Million, Lee Reichhold; librarian, Patty Lou Lloyd.

Annual Pledge Dance Held By Omega Phi

Tomorrow night the "9.11 Club," more commonly known as Omega Phi Alpha, will be roaring in great style when the pledges present their annual pledge dance. From 10:00 to 1:00 Al Rains and his band will provide music for the gangsterous, skid row characters who attend.

Chairmen under the leadership of Norm Nazar, pledge president, are as follows: bids, Bob Tracy; music, Ron Devight; refreshments, Don Cornell; decorations, Breck Green.

Rhizite Pledges Plan Hell

Tonight the pledges of Rho Lambda Phi are presenting their annual Hell Dance. Following the theme "Hell's Hobos," the pledges are in charge of all arrangements under the direction of Pledge Dutch Triebwasser.

In accordance to the theme, costumed figures will be seen charging throughout Rhizomia from 9:00 to 12:00. The music will be provided by Pete Devanis and his orchestra.

Engagement Told After Fire Drill

Leslie Lea Mills, of West Hall, announced her engagement to Bill McDaniel at the end of a fire drill on November 9 at West Hall. A poem was read by Jane Boesch which revealed the news and the five pound box of chocolates followed. The engagement had previously been announced to friends in Oakland where Leslie attended high school.

Leslie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Mills of Garden Grove, California, is a freshman at College of the Pacific and an ambassador of the "Y" as well as a member of Central Wesley Fellowship.

Bill, known to his friends as Buck, is a foreman at the B. W. Ranches in the Imperial Valley. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. McDaniel of Niland, California and he attended San Diego State for a semester.

Student Teacher Children's Party Set For Today

A Christmas tree and a jolly Santa Claus will be the center of attraction this afternoon from three to five at the children's Christmas Party sponsored by College of the Pacific's California Student Teachers Association. The children will be those who attend clinics on campus.

The clinics are music therapy, speech therapy, play therapy, and reading therapy. Friends and parents have been invited to accompany the children to the party. Refreshments will be served and games, such as pin the nose on Rudolph, will be played.

Tuesday Chapel

"The Dog in the Manger" will be the title of the Tuesday Chapel sermon December 8. The speaker will be the Rev. C. Douglas Hayward of the Hillsdale Methodist Church.

Student leader for the service will be Donald Sager. Special music for chapel next week will be a duet by Dr. Lawrence J. Osborne and Mr. J. Henry Welton who will sing the piece "Watchman, What of the Night."

Following the service Rev. Hayward will eat lunch with all interested students who would like to talk and discuss with him on an informal basis in the Anderson "Y" den.

Tig-Cubs Go Against Grant Tech

THIRD ORANGE AND BLACK GRID GREAT IN CLASSIC

Grant Tech of Sacramento will be the foe as the Tiger-Cub Basketball Quint open their season tonight at 6:30 in the Pacific Pavilion.

It will be the first time that Frosh Coach Bud Watkins has sent a team he has instructed onto the basketball court.

The Freshmen will be shorter than the Varsity at a mere 6' 4" and probably taller than always tough Grant Tech.

The starters will be tall redheaded Bill Woods at center, Jack Mardin at guard, footballer Art Sonickson at the other guard, John Thomas at one forward spot and "is 'ighness" Duke Morse.

Watkins Activated Frosh Coach Called To Army Service

The United States Army Reserve Activated Freshman Coach Bud Watkins recently. "Watty" reported to the San Francisco Headquarters of the Army Reserve at the Presidio last night.

Jerry Streeter, ex Pacific football basketball and basketball star who has been assisting Coach Van Sweet with his training of the Varsity will move into the vacated Freshman Coach's spot.

At this printing Watkins was unavailable for comment.

ART LEIBSCHER IN SHRINE GAME

College of Pacific Football great Art Liebscher received nationwide recognition for his grid-iron prominence this week.

The half back was invited to play in the annual East-West Shrine Game where "healthy legs run so weak legs may walk."

Liebscher is twenty-one years old and a senior from Santa Rosa. He and his wife Darlene (a former Pacific Student) occupy an apartment in Manor Hall.

A standout football star at Santa Rosa High School, he was named to the All Time All Star Santa Rosa High eleven that included such illustrious names as Dick Read of St. Mary's and Tulsa (class of 46), Bud Toscani of St. Mary's (27) and Ernie Nevers of Stanford (21).

Last season, Liebscher ran from the first String fullback spot and has been a consistent performer for the Tigers—in past seasons.

In his freshman year at Santa

Rosa Junior College, Liebscher played on a BIG SEVEN CHAMPIONSHIP team and was an outstanding performer in that circuit.

It seems that in the last games of the season, Liebscher found his pace. In the Fresno game he ran three touchdowns up the middle but one was recalled on a penalty. He ran another up the middle in the Utah game and caught a 33 yard Jacob's pass to score the winning point that finished the Pacific Grid Season.

In the Shrine Game Liebscher will be pitted against the touchdown twins from Notre Dame, Johnnie Lattner and fullback Neil Worden.

Such former Pacific Greats as Eddie Le Baron (50), and Dick Batten (53) have carried the Orange and Black to Kezar Stadium, site of the nation's most beneficial "Bowl" Game. At one time Dick Batten was a patient in the Shrine Hospital because of polio.

Pacific's Shrine Game representative Art Liebscher is caught by the shutter as he breaks away from the last tackler in the Fresno game and begins his race to the end zone.

By LARRY ALLIN

It seems that Arbor Day was very much a success last Wednesday. A large measure of the credit for the conception, organization and direction of the campus wide event goes to Pacific Student Association Vice President Norman Harris.

Early in the semester Harris was out beating the drum in various offices of the campus higher ups and faculty higher ups to get the job done.

It was a great day, a good time was had by all and a point was proved "that capable student direction with whole hearted student cooperation can do a job in one hour and ten minutes that four years of continual griping could not do."

THINLIES REALLY THIN FOUR LETTERMEN BACK

Although lacking in returning lettermen, the College of the Pacific track squad will be "better than last year" according to track coach Earl Jackson. Practice will begin shortly after the beginning of the second semester.

With only four lettermen returning to provide the nucleus of the squad, Coach Jackson must depend on transfer students and freshmen if Pacific is to have a successful season.

The returning lettermen are Joe Leonard who runs the dashes; Ennis McDaniels who tosses the discus; Robert Wall who throws the javelin; and Phil Wogaman who broad jumps and high jumps.

Some of the new men that Coach Jackson has high hopes for are hurdler Clyde Conner, a transfer from San Mateo JC; Ben Cahill, a shot-putter who did well as a frosh last year; and freshmen Jack Mardin, a half-miler from San Jose and Alonzo Hall, a 100 and 220 yard dash man.

Bengals Host Untried Wolfpack

The 1953-54 edition of the College of the Pacific Bengal Basketball team open their intercollegiate season tonight with a game with the strong University of Nevada Wolfpack at 8:20 in the Pacific Gymnasium.

They host the Wolfpack again tomorrow night in a rematch. The Bengals will be without the services of two of their top performers with Co-captain Dale Clipper and big Ron Devight both out with ailments.

Clipper has a bad case of mononeuclyosis, an aggravated blood condition, while Devight has some badly strained cartilages in his right knee. Devight will be replaced in the starting lineup by Bruce Harkness who turned in a good job against the Alumni in the last Tuesday night's game against a potent Bengal Alumni group.

The Bengals came out on the long end of a 75 to 53 score with Nick Romanoff hitting the hoop for 19 points, closely followed by Al Mangin who collected 17 counters.

The Tiger Basketball team will again start an all junior college transfer team tonight. The "new" Tiger starting players are Clyde Connor (6-3) of San Mateo JC, Nick Romanoff (6-7) up from Stockton College, Don Buchman (6-3) also from Stockton College, Bruce Harkness (6-4) Stockton College, and Al Mangin (6-4) from San Mateo JC.

Only Chance For Yearbook Photos !!

TO ALL STUDENTS—

This year all portraits for your yearbook, the NARANJADO, will be taken by the Colonna Studios in New York. This studio takes pictures for University of California, Harvard and other large schools. Since this studio is located in New York, their photographer will be on our campus for ONE WEEK, and ONE WEEK ONLY.

Listed below is a complete appointment schedule of portraits for the NARANJADO. This listing includes graduates (January, June, and summer session), all Living Groups and P.S.A. Senate members.

It is most important to remember that you keep your appointment with the photographer since he WILL NOT be back after this week is over. Look this schedule over, then remember your time and day. If by chance your name has been overlooked, or if you are unable to keep your appointment — please phone Shirley Dyke at 4-0351. The charge this year is $2.00 per picture, but if you are a graduate and in a living group the charge will be $2.50 instead of the $4.00 it was last year.
